House Captains at St Mark's

Would you like to like to apply to be a House Captain for 2025-26?

Read on to find out more about this very special responsibility.

Role and Expectations of House and Vice House Captains

The role of House and Vice House Captains are ones of privilege, pride and responsibility. They are more than just a title and badge and require dedication and commitment for an entire year. The children take part in active citizenship, whereby they lead a range of inter school activities throughout the year. At the beginning of each year, up to two House Captains and two Vice Captains are elected for each house by the Headteacher and the Year 6 Teaching Team. Those wishing to be considered for the role should submit a letter about what they can offer their House.

Each Captain will be different and will contribute an assortment of skills and ideas to the job.

Characteristics of House and Vice House Captains

- Polite and well-mannered
- Organised and committed
- A confident speaker
- Well-presented in uniform and appearance
- Able to liaise and converse with staff, students and the wider community
- Desire to act responsibly and to be a role model for other students
- Be caring, mature and honest

We expect you:

- To be a positive role model and ambassador for the school, demonstrating St Mark's Values.
- To be enthusiastic and committed to the House System at St Mark's.
- To be friendly and positive with all children, especially supporting those in your House.
- To be part of the team of House Captains who work together to achieve success for all.
